PENTECOST SUNDAY

Bringing joy to everything

When the Spirit of God descends upon you and overshadows you with the fullness of His outpouring, then your soul overflows with indescribable joy. For the Holy Spirit turns to joy whatever He touches. The reign of heaven is peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Acquire inward peace, and thousands around you will find their salvation.

PENTECOST LETTER FROM CARDINAL SEÁN TO ALL CATHOLICS

Cardinal Seán has written a Pastoral Letter on Evangelization this Pentecost to all Catholics in the Archdiocese as we move into the next phase of our Catholics Come Home campaign. The first phase involved television messages and parish activities. The successive phases involve outreach on a more personal and direct level by individual Catholics and through organized parish evangelization activities. Please read this pastoral letter at BostonCatholic.org/PentecostLetter.

FROM FR. MARC

Dear Parish Family,

Happy Pentecost! I pray that the Holy Spirit of unity, solidarity, cooperation, and peace descends upon us.

To clarify, the 4PM Saturday masses are NOT affected by the announced Mass changes. Only the schedule for Sunday was affected. There will be a Saturday 4PM Mass at both parish churches.

Also to clarify, if you attend one or the other, Ste. Marguerite's or St. Rita Parishes for Mass, and you place an envelope in the offertory basket, no matter which community it is from, the offering will be credited to the parish indicated on the envelope. This has been the practice and will continue to be the practice.

I conclude by congratulating the many of our youth parishioners who graduated from High School, Junior High and College this past month. Know that you and your future endeavors are very much in my prayers.

Peace,

Fr. Marc
